Year Review

Tarot Playbook and Countdown Calendar to the New Year

31 Journaling Prompts to Bridge 2017 and 2018

How to Use This Review Journal

This is my third year creating a Tarot Playbook to wrap the year up and get as much as possible from the year's lessons and blessings. The first two thirds of this review journal/Tarot playbook is dedicated to the 2017 year review. The final decan (10 days) are for planning ahead and setting ourselves up to make the most of 2018.

The idea is to do one prompt a day, starting 1 December and ending on the last day of the year.

Top Tip: Print the playbook out so that you can spend some time offline journaling and engage more of your senses. It also makes it possible for you to turn your journal into a work of art. In short, it makes it more yours...

You can answer the questions and write down your answers and then pull a Tarot card (feel free to pull more than one!) to go deeper. Or you can answer a prompt/question with a draw...It's entirely up to you how you want to play this.

It's also up to you if you wish to do random draws or choose cards face up - except for the year card prompts which depend on your year numerology. No previous knowledge of the Tarot is necessary. Allow the images and your intuition to take you deeper within... If you want to learn more about individual cards, you can look up the card meanings HERE.

Top Tip: Share your daily draw on Instagram or Twitter with the hashtag #angelorumtarot

Thank you for all your support, likes, shares and comments in the year gone by!

I appreciate it and I appreciate YOU!

Love and Blessings,

Lisa
